

Laramie County voters can now look up their Primary Election sample ballot on the County Clerk's website, as well information about their election districts. To access the sample ballot, a voter will enter his Laramie County residential address and three versions of a sample ballot will appear— Democratic, Republican and Non-Partisan. The ballot a voter will receive at the polls is determined by his voter registration party affiliation. Wyoming law does permit voters to change party affiliation at the polls or when requesting an absentee ballot.

Voters can view their sample ballot at <https://maps.laramiecounty.com/myrep/> .

Absentee and early voting starts Friday, July 6. Voters who have not yet requested an absentee ballot may do so by calling (307) 633-4242 or emailing election@laramiecountyclerk.com . Please provide your name as listed on the voter registration roll, date of birth, Laramie County residential address, address where you want your ballot mailed (if different from residential), and contact number or email where you may be reached.

Early voting starts Friday, July 6, in the Atrium of the Laramie County Governmental Complex, 309 W 20th St. Voting is available Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. with the exception of legal holidays. Persons who have not yet registered to vote may register in the Atrium.

For more information on elections in Laramie County, visit <https://www.laramiecountyclerk.com/elections.aspx> .