

Laramie County Sheriff Brian Kozak

Sheriff Brian Kozak was sworn into office on January 3, 2023. Prior to being elected as sheriff, Brian retired as Cheyenne's longest serving police chief with 11 years of service. He began his law enforcement career with the Mesa, Arizona Police Department where he served in the motor unit, gang unit and patrol division. After 22 years, he retired from Mesa as the jail commander to accept a position as police chief in Avon, Colorado, where he served four years before coming to Cheyenne. Sheriff Kozak holds a master's degree in education and a bachelor's degree in business.