1.0 PURPOSE & OVERVIEW

Laramie County is soliciting competitive sealed proposals from qualified contractors for upgrading the fire panel to enable communication with the upcoming modernization of 3 elevators located at the Laramie county courthouse. This is not a full replacement of panels and all devices. We are looking for a panel to help integrate the modernized elevators into our current system that has capabilities for forward migration in the future. We are looking for a nonproprietary system or limited distributor for this project.

Respondents shall physically visit site and carefully examine the areas in question as to conditions that may affect the proper execution of the work. All dimensions and quantities shall be determined by the contractor. There are no electronic plans and specifications available for bid purposes. This is a public building with activity at all entrances during business hours.

2.0 SCOPE OF SERVICES

Scope of Work:

Supply and install a compatible panel to replace with our current panel and integrate the 3 elevators that will be upgraded. Any electrical work requiring an electrician is to be included in the proposal. Building must remain monitored after business hours. All devices and sub panels to be integrated with new panels.

Additional Notes:

1. The selected respondent shall provide all materials, labor and the necessary tools and supervision and ensure the work is completed safely and properly.
2. All work shall be completed in accordance with the specifications of the County and comply in every respect with the Building Laws, City Regulations County Regulations and Code Requirements (City, County, State, or National).
3. All work is to be done during normal business hours unless specific arrangements are agreed upon.
4. Proposal to include all permits and insurance as required by Laramie County and City of Cheyenne.

5. Include timeline estimate for the project start and finish dates; and willing to agree to clauses in the final contract that the contractor may incur penalties for untimely completion.
6. Contractor shall ONLY repair, replace, upgrade, or install work as instructed.
7. Installation and repair work areas must be left in a clean and workable condition daily.
8. Building must be secure daily prior to contractor leaving premises.
9. Bidders shall visit the site and carefully examine the area in question as to conditions that may affect proper execution of the work.
10. No claims for extra costs will be allowed because of lack of full knowledge of the existing conditions unless agreed to in advance with Laramie County or Laramie County's representative.
11. All records, including digital information, video tapes and audio tapes, related to the contract services performed for the County shall be subject to the Wyoming Public Records Laws and shall be maintained and made available in accordance with those laws and public records policies and procedures of the County. Records shall be made available to the County without question upon request of the County, in accordance with the requirements of law. Citizen requests for such records shall be processed through the County. All records, including all types of electronic records, related to the contract and services performed there under shall be the property of the County at the end of the contract, or at the end of the County's fiscal year, or upon demand of the County, whichever occurs first. The County shall specify the minimum records to be maintained by the respondent. The respondent may maintain additional records at its discretion.

3.7 Clarification and Addenda

It is incumbent upon each respondent to carefully examine all specifications, terms, and conditions contained herein. Any inquiries, suggestions, or requests concerning interpretation, clarification or additional information shall be made in writing, (facsimile transmissions acceptable) through the Manager named above. The County will not be responsible for any oral representation(s) given by any employee, representative or others. The issuance of a written addendum is the only official method by which interpretation, clarification or additional information can be given.

If it becomes necessary to revise or amend any part of this RFP, notice may be obtained by accessing the County web site. Respondents in their proposal must acknowledge receipts of amendments. Each respondent should ensure that they have received all addenda and amendments to this RFP before submitting their proposal. Please check the Laramie County web site at <http://www.laramiecounty.com> for any addenda.

3.8 Modification or Withdrawal of RFPs

A proposal which is in any way incomplete, irregular or conditional will not be accepted unless approved in advance by Laramie County Maintenance Department. By submitting a proposal, vendors agree that any inaccuracy in information given by the vendor to Laramie County Maintenance Department constitute good and sufficient cause for rejection of the proposal at the time of the delivery.

Once submitted, a proposal may be modified or withdrawn only by appropriate notice to Laramie County Maintenance Department. Such notice will be in writing over the signature of the vendor. A withdrawn proposal may be resubmitted up to the time designated for the receipt of proposals provided it then fully conforms to the general terms and conditions.

3.9 Award

The County reserves the right to award the contract to the respondent(s) that the County deems to offer the best overall proposal(s). The County is therefore not bound to accept a proposal on the basis of lowest price. In addition, the County at its sole discretion, reserves the right to cancel this RFP, to modify the quantities of product we purchase, to reject any and all proposals, to waive any and all informalities and/or irregularities, or to re-advertise with either the identical or revised specifications, if it is deemed to be in the best interest of the County to do so. The County also reserves the right to make multiple awards, based on experience and qualifications if it is deemed to be in the County's best interest.

3.10 Contract

The contents of this RFP and all provisions of the successful proposal deemed pertinent by the County may be incorporated into a contract and become legally binding. A separate contract document will be issued.

The County Commissioners are the sole Contracting Officer for Laramie County, Wyoming, and only he/she or his/her designee is authorized to make changes to any contract.

The County shall be responsible for only those orders placed by the County on an authorized signed Purchase Order or Price Agreement. The County shall not be responsible for any order, change, substitution or any other discrepancy from the Purchase Order or Price Agreement. If there is any question about the authenticity of a Purchase Order, Price Agreement or change order, the respondent should promptly contact the Laramie County Maintenance Manager at (307) 633-4341.

3.11 Disclosure of RFP Content

All material submitted becomes the property of the County and may be returned only at the County's option. The County has the right to use any or all ideas presented in any reply to this RFP. Selection or rejection of any proposal does not affect this right.

3.12 Respondent's Responsibility

A respondent, by submitting a proposal represents that:

- A. The respondent has read and understands the RFP in its entirety that and the proposal is made in accordance therewith, and
- B. The respondent possesses the capabilities, resources, and personnel necessary to provide efficient and successful service to the County, and
- C. Before submitting a proposal, each respondent shall make all investigations and examinations necessary to ascertain site and/or local conditions and requirements affecting the full performance of the contract and to verify any representations made by Laramie County upon which the respondent will rely. If the respondent receives an award because of its proposal submission, failure to have made such investigations and examinations will in no way relieve the respondent from its obligations to comply in every detail with all provisions and requirements of the contract, nor will a plea of ignorance of such conditions and requirements be accepted as a basis for any claim by the respondent for additional compensation or relief.
- D. Respondents are aware that Laramie County is a governmental entity in the State of Wyoming. Public Works projects, such as that referenced herein, carried out by governmental entities are subject to certain legal and regulatory requirements which may or may not be applicable to private entities. Wyoming Statute § 16-6-101 to 16-6-206. Any contract with a successful respondent will contain a requirement to monitor and secure compliance on the project with all applicable laws and regulations including, but not limited to, those contained in statutes referenced in this paragraph.

3.13 Payment Terms

The County will remit full payment on all undisputed invoices within forty-five (45) days from receipt by the appropriate person(s) (to be designated at time of contract) of the invoice(s) or receipt of all products or services ordered.

3.14 Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form

All respondents shall complete and have notarized the attached disclosure form of any potential conflict of interest that the respondent may have due to ownership, other clients, contracts, or interest associated with this project.

3.15 Minor Irregularities

The County reserves the right to waive minor irregularities in proposals, providing such action is in the best interest of the County. Minor irregularities are defined as those that have no adverse effect on the County's best interests and will not affect the outcome of the selection process by giving the respondent an advantage or benefit not enjoyed by other respondents.

3.16 Deviations

All proposals must clearly and with specific detail, note all deviations to the exact requirements imposed upon the respondent by the General Terms & Conditions. Such deviations must be stated upon the Proposal Form; otherwise, Laramie County will consider the subject proposals as being made in strict compliance with said General Terms & Conditions to respondents; the respondent being held therefore accountable and responsible. Respondents are hereby advised that Laramie County will only consider proposals that meet the exact requirements imposed by the General Terms & Conditions; except, however, said proposals may not be subject to such rejection where, at the sole discretion of Laramie County, the stated deviation is considered to be equal or better than the imposed requirement and where said deviation does not destroy the competitive character of the RFP process by affecting the amount of the proposal such that an advantage or benefit is gained to the detriment of the other respondents.

3.17 Waiver of Claims

Once this contract expires, or final payment has been requested and made, the awarded respondent shall have no more than 30 calendar days to present or file any claims against the County concerning this contract. After that period, the County will consider the respondent to have waived any right to claims against the County concerning this agreement.

3.18 Selection Criteria

Each proposal shall be evaluated using the following criteria:

1. Proper submittal of ALL documentation as required by this proposal.
2. Overall scope and quality of the proposed project

3. Meeting or exceeding the requirements of the RFP.
4. Quality and compatibility of the work proposed.
5. Ability to accomplish project in a timely manner.
6. The benefits to Laramie County as it pertains to:
 - a. Related experience in the areas covered in the RFP.
 - b. Past record of performance on contracts with government agencies and private industry with respect to such factors as control of costs, quality of work and ability to meet schedules.
 - c. Experience, ability, and overall quality of past and current projects

3.19 Termination / Cancellation of Contract

The County reserves the right to cancel the contract without cause with a minimum thirty (30) days written notice. Termination or cancellation of the contract will not relieve the respondent of any obligations for any deliverables entered prior to the termination of the contract (i.e., reports, materials, statements of accounts, etc., required and not received). Termination or cancellation of the contract will not relieve the respondent of any obligations or liabilities resulting from any acts committed by the respondent prior to the termination of the contract.

3.20 Incurred Expenses

This RFP does not commit Laramie County to award a contract. Nor shall Laramie County be responsible for any cost or expense which may be incurred by the respondent in preparing and submitting the proposal called for in this RFP, or any cost or expense incurred by the respondent prior to the execution of a contract agreement.

3.21 Presentations by Respondents

Laramie County, at its sole discretion, may ask individual respondents to make oral presentations and/or demonstrations without charge to the County.

The County reserves the right to require any respondent to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the County that the respondent has the fiscal and managerial abilities to properly furnish the services proposed and required to fulfill the contract. The demonstration must satisfy the County and the County shall be the sole judge of compliance.

Respondents are cautioned not to assume that presentations will be required and should include all pertinent and required information in their original proposal package.

3.22 Minimum Specifications

The specifications listed in the Scope of Service are the minimum required performance specifications for this RFP. They are not intended to limit competition nor specify any respondent, but to ensure that the County receives quality services.

3.23 Respondent's Personnel

The respondent shall be responsible for ensuring that its employees, agents, and subcontractors comply with all applicable laws and regulations and meet all federal, state and local requirements related to their employment and position. The respondent certifies that it does not and will not during the performance of the contract employ illegal alien workers or otherwise violate the provisions of the federal Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, as amended. During the performance of the contract, the respondent agrees to the following:

The respondent shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, religion, color, sex, age, handicap or national origin, except when such condition is a bona fide occupational qualification reasonably necessary for the normal operations of the respondent.

The respondent agrees to post in conspicuous places, visible to employees and applicants for employment, notices setting forth the provisions of this nondiscrimination clause.

The respondent, in all solicitations or advertisements for employees placed by or on behalf of the respondent, shall state that such respondent is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

Notices, advertisements, and solicitations placed in accordance with federal law, rule, or regulation shall be deemed sufficient for the purpose of meeting the requirements of this section. The respondent shall include the provisions of the foregoing paragraphs above in every subcontract or purchase order so that the provisions will be binding upon each respondent or vendor. The respondent and any subcontractor shall pay all employees working on this contract not less than minimum wage specified in the Fair Labor Standards Act (29 CFR 510-794) as amended. Any information concerning the County, its products, services, personnel, policies or any other aspect of its business learned by the respondent or personnel furnished by the respondent in the course of providing services pursuant to the Agreement, shall be held in confidence and shall not be disclosed by the respondent or any employee or agents of the respondent or personnel furnished by the respondent, without the prior written consent of the County.

3.24 Claim Notice

The respondent shall immediately report in writing to the County's designated representative or agent any incident which might reasonably be expected to result in any claim under any of the coverage mentioned herein. The respondent agrees to cooperate with the County in promptly releasing reasonable information periodically as to the disposition of any claims, including a resume' of claims experience relating to all respondent operations at the County project site.

3.25 Proposal Acceptance/Rejection

The County reserves the right to accept or reject any or all proposals received as a result of this RFP, or to negotiate separately with competing respondents, and to waive any informalities, defects, or irregularities in any proposal, or to accept that proposal or proposals, which in the judgment of the proper officials, is in the best interest of the County.

4.0 SUBMITTAL REQUIREMENTS

Proposals shall include all of the information solicited in this RFP, and any additional data that the respondent deems pertinent to the understanding and evaluation of the proposal. Proposals shall be organized and sections tabbed in the following order. The respondent should not withhold any information from the written response in anticipation of presenting the information orally or in a demonstration, since oral presentations or demonstrations may not be solicited. All proposals shall include at minimum:

Tab 1 – Respondent’s Profile

A brief profile of the firm, including the firm’s overall qualifications to provide services necessary to fulfill all requirements outlined in the project Scope of Work.

Tab 2 - Completed Proposal Form (use attached form)

Tab 3 – References

List at least three (3) recent references where the equivalent projects have been conducted within the past five years.

Tab 4 – Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form

All respondents shall properly complete, have notarized and attach with their proposal the attached notarized disclosure statement. The Officers and Significant Stakeholders form shall also be completed and be submitted behind this tab.

Tab 5 - Other Information

Include any additional information you believe will assist the County in the selection process of qualified respondents. Please be succinct.

I. 5.0 Disclosures

The laws of Wyoming require that the contents of all proposals shall be placed in the public domain and be open to inspection by interested parties. Trade secrets or proprietary information that are recognized as such and are protected by law may be withheld if clearly identified as such in the proposal. The entire proposal cannot be designated as proprietary or a trade secret. If a request is received to examine portions designated as proprietary or a trade secret, Laramie County will notify the vendor to permit the vendor to defend the proprietary nature of the information.

II.

If a respondent discovers any ambiguity, conflict, discrepancy, exclusionary specifications, omission, or other error in this document, the respondent shall immediately notify the issuing office. If a respondent fails to notify the issuing office of any error, ambiguity, conflict, discrepancy, exclusionary specifications, or omission, the respondent shall submit a response at its own risk and under such conditions. If the respondent is awarded a contract, then such respondent will not be entitled to additional compensation, relief, or time by reason of the error or its later correction.

The successful respondent will be expected to enter into a contract with Laramie County upon terms acceptable to the County.

Following the award of the contract, responses to this proposal are subject to release as public information unless specific parts of the response can be shown to be exempt from the laws of the State of Wyoming. Respondents are advised to consult with their legal counsel regarding disclosure issues and take the appropriate precautions to safeguard trade secrets or any other proprietary information. Laramie County assumes no obligation or responsibility for asserting legal arguments on behalf of potential respondents.

If a respondent believes that parts of a proposal are confidential then the respondent must specify. The respondent must mark in bold red letters the term “CONFIDENTIAL” on that part of the response, which the respondent believes to be confidential. The respondent must submit in writing specific detailed reasons, including any relevant legal authority, stating why the respondent believes the material to be confidential. Vague and general claims as to confidentiality will not be accepted. Laramie County will be the sole judge as to whether a claim is general and/or vague in nature. All parts of proposals, which are not marked as confidential, will be automatically considered public information after the contract is awarded. The successful proposal may be considered public information even though parts are marked confidential.

Proposals must be signed by a person authorized to commit the respondent to provide the services requested in this RFP. Submission of a signed proposal will be interpreted to mean the respondent has agreed to all terms and conditions set forth in all of the sheets which make up this RFP.

Laramie County accepts no obligations for the costs incurred in responding to this RFP in anticipation of being awarded a contract. Laramie County reserves the right to reject any and all submitted proposals. It is understood that all proposals become the property of Laramie County and will be available for public inspection. No obligation is made by retention of these proposals, nor is Laramie County committed to awarding a contract as a result of this RFP.

Each respondent must disclose any existing or potential conflict of interest relative to the performance of the requirements of this proposal. Examples of potential conflicts may include an existing business or personal relationship between the respondent, its principal or any affiliate or subcontractor, with Laramie County or any other entity or person involved in any way in the project that is the subject of this RFP. Similarly, any personal or business relationship between the respondent, the principals, or an affiliate or subcontractor, with any employee of Laramie County or its suppliers must be disclosed. Any such relationship that might be perceived or represented as a conflict should be disclosed. Failure to disclose any such relationship or reveal personal relationships with Laramie County employees may be cause for contract termination. Laramie County will decide if an actual or perceived conflict should result in proposal disqualification. By submitting a response to this RFP, all respondents affirm that they have not given, nor intend to give, any time hereafter any economic opportunity, future employment, gift, loan, gratuity, special discount, tip, favor, or service to a Laramie County employee or representative in connection with the procurement.

III. Governmental Immunity

Laramie County does not waive its Governmental/Sovereign Immunity, as provided by any applicable law including W.S. 1-39-101 et seq., by issuing this RFP or by entering into any subsequent agreement. Further, Laramie County fully retains all immunities and defenses provided by law with regard to any action, whether in tort, contract or any other theory of law, based on this RFP or any subsequent agreement.

Indemnification

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the successful respondent agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Laramie County, its appointed officials, elected officials, employees and volunteers from any and all liability for injuries, damages, claims, penalties, actions, demands or expenses arising from or in connection with any work performed by or on behalf of respondent for Laramie County pursuant to any agreement with Laramie County.

Termination

The selection may be terminated (a) by either party at any time for failure of the other party to comply with the terms and conditions of the RFP or any subsequent agreement; (b) by either party, with thirty days' prior written notice to the other party; or (c) upon mutual written agreement by both parties.

Force Majeure

Neither the respondent nor Laramie County shall be liable to perform under this RFP or subsequent agreement if such failure arises out of causes beyond control, and without the fault or the negligence of said party. Such causes may include, but are not restricted to, Act of God or the public enemy, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, freight embargoes and unusually severe weather. In every case, however, a failure to perform must be beyond the control and without the fault or the negligence of said party.

The submission of a proposal shall be considered acceptance to all the terms and conditions provided herein and in the various proposal documents, unless specifically noted otherwise in the proposal.
