

SEPTEMBER IS NATIONAL PREPAREDNESS MONTH

GET READY, LARAMIE COUNTY!

Two FREE emergency-training courses — open to the whole community

Hosted by the Cheyenne / Laramie County Emergency Management Agency

When disaster hits, help may be minutes — or even days — away.
Learn the real skills to protect yourself, your family, and your neighbors.
It's 100% FREE and you'll earn a certificate of completion!

TWO FREE COURSES THIS FALL! JOIN ONE OR BOTH!

COURSE 1 • FREE

Disaster Preparedness & Survival Training

Evacuate smart, shelter in place, and recover—as a family.

- Fri, Sept 25, 5–9PM & Sat, Sept 26, 8AM–5PM
- Snacks provided both days · Certificate included

COURSE 2 • FREE

CERT Basic Training

Fire safety, disaster medical ops, search & rescue, and more.

- Oct 15 & 16, 6–9PM & Sat, Oct 17, 8AM–5PM
- FREE CERT backpack with gear included!
- Ages 14+ (minors need a participating adult. Team membership optional).

SCAN TO REGISTER

LARAMIE COUNTY ISN'T IMMUNE! BE READY FOR...

Blizzards

Cyber Breaches

Floods

Hail

HAZMAT Spills

Structure Fires

Tornadoes

Wildland Fires

First responders rush to the areas hit hardest first, and everyday supplies can run short for up to two weeks. Training now means you're ready when it counts.

WHERE

Archer Complex
3962 Archer Parkway, Cheyenne

QUESTIONS?

beth.harris@laramiecountywy.gov
sherard640@aol.com

Cheyenne / Laramie County Emergency Management Agency

J. West, Director · M. Butler, Operations/Fire Warden · B. Harris, Planning & Admin · B. Sherard, CERT Team Coordinator