MEMORANDUM

TO: Laramie County Board of Commissioners

FROM: Justin Arnold, Planning Program Manager

DATE: July 1st 2025

TITLE: NOTICE OF INTENT: Amendment to 2024 IRC section R303.5.10 Interior Finish. Residential detached accessory buildings (without habitable space) are exempt from meeting the requirements of R306.6. as it relates to closed cell spray foam insulation.

---

On August 25, 2023, the Laramie County Chief Building Official visited the Laramie County Fire Authority (LCFA) facility tested the viability of exempting compliance with National Fire Protection Associate (NFPA) 286 for residential accessory structures. This code requirement stipulates that all spray foam insulation be coated with a fire barrier. Staff built three preconstructed wall sections, one with no spray foam insulation, one with and one with Insulation and the currently required thermal barrier. Based upon those test results, it was determined that both Building and Fire officials believe it safe to exempt accessory structures only from the NFPA 286

Due to this finding, Laramie County is providing the statutorily required Notice of Intent for the following:

Amendment to 2024 IRC section R303.5.10 Interior Finish. Residential detached accessory buildings (without habitable space) are exempt from meeting the requirements of R306.6. as it relates to closed cell spray foam insulation.
